UKULELE FOR CHILDREN

The ukulele is a great way for kids to start making music. You can buy a playable ukulele for around $40 from music shops. It's a good instrument for small hands. It's fun, and you don't need to read music.

Alice Bulmer is an experienced ukulele teacher who started playing ukulele at the age of six.

"My mum, who was a guitarist, taught me a few chords, and I was hooked," said Alice.

She has also played violin in symphony orchestras and folk groups, and bass guitar in rock bands — but she loves the ukulele.

This class is suitable for primary school aged children.

Term 4 there will be two children's ukulele classes starting Monday, October 17.

- Beginners 3.30-4pm for students mastering basic chords and strums.

- Next Step 4.15-4.45pm for students who are ready to move to the next stage.

Each class is limited to a maximum of six students, so please enrol and pay early to make sure of your place. To enrol, contact Anne on 858 3453 or email admin@waimarie.org. Cost $20 for six lessons.

UKULELE FOR ADULTS

Level 2, 5.30pm Mondays, starting October 17 for six weeks.

This class is suitable for adults who have been to a beginners' class and/or know some basic chords, and want to keep on playing in a fun, friendly environment.
